

ART MADRID'24 PRESENTS ITS GENERAL PROGRAM OF GALLERIES AND THE NEWS THAT THE 19TH EDITION BRINGS

- Art Madrid, the contemporary art fair, celebrates its 19th edition from March 6th to 10th 2024 at the Galería de Cristal of the Palacio de Cibeles (Madrid).
- The General Programme of Art Madrid '24 includes 36 carefully selected national and international galleries, offering an overview of the latest trends in contemporary art.
- On the occasion of its 19th edition, Art Madrid presents its General Gallery Programme and a renewed Parallel Programme, both of which strengthen the presence of an event that has already surpassed its satellite season and established itself as a reference in each edition.

Madrid, December 13, 2023.- Art Madrid'24 returns to the art scene and celebrates its nineteenth edition. From March 6th to 10th, 2024, the Galería de Cristal of the Palacio de Cibeles will become the epicentre where the most innovative and current artistic trends from both national and international scenes will converge. On the occasion of its 19th edition, Art Madrid presents its General Gallery Program as well as exciting news about the Parallel Program. Both initiatives aim to enrich the presence of an event that has already surpassed its satellite season, establishing itself in each edition as a reference point on the agenda of both the general and specialized public.

The General Program of Art Madrid'24 consists of 36 carefully selected national and international galleries. The proposals, characterized by experimentation and the plurality of aesthetic discourses, will transform the space into an open window to the most cutting-edge artistic currents. Participating galleries will offer the opportunity to see the production developed by their artists over the past year— a period dedicated to research and experimentation with new aesthetic codes. Throughout the fair, visitors will be able to see how their creative results are redefining the cultural landscape and positioning themselves within the ever-turning wheel of the contemporary art market.

Art Madrid'24 returns with the vitality of its previous editions, accompanying emerging art and structuring an open and transversal fair proposal that brings to the forefront the most pressing issues of our context.

Spanish galleries: a view from the national creation

On the national front, 25 Spanish galleries will participate in this new edition, two of them for the first time. Continuity and novelty intertwine to show the richness of the Spanish artistic landscape.

CLC ARTE (Valencia) and La Mercería (Valencia) are making their debut as participants in this new edition. Returning to Art Madrid'24 are: 3 Punts (Barcelona), Alba Cabrera (Valencia), Arancha Osoro (Oviedo), Arma Gallery (Madrid), Aurora Vigil-Escalera (Gijón), BAT Alberto Cornejo (Madrid), Bea Villamarín (Gijón), DDR (Madrid), Dr. Robot (Valencia), Espiral (Noja), Flecha (Madrid), Hispánica Contemporánea (Madrid/CDMX), Inéditad Gallery (Barcelona), Kur Art Gallery (San Sebastián), La Aurora (Murcia), Luisa Pita (Santiago de Compostela), Metro (Santiago de Compostela), MoretArt (A Coruña), OOA Gallery (Sitges/London), Pigment Gallery (Barcelona/Paris), Rodrigo Juarranz (Aranda de Duero), Shiras Galería (Valencia), and Uxval Gochez (Barcelona).

International Galleries: an expanding dialogue

The cultural dialogue will be present with the participation of 11 prominent international galleries. Five of them join the fair for the first time, enriching the experience with new proposals and perspectives. The galleries that continue to support Art Madrid'24 are: Collage Habana (La Habana, Cuba), Galleria Stefano Forni (Bologna, Italy), Nuno Sacramento Arte Contemporânea (Ílhavo, Portugal), São Mamede (Lisbon, Portugal), Trema Arte Contemporânea (Lisbon, Portugal), and Yiri Arts (Taipei, Taiwan).

The new galleries: Banditrazos Gallery (Seoul, South Korea), Galerie One (Paris, France), Gallery Tableau (Seoul, South Korea), Kleur Gallery (Santiago de Chile, Chile), and Loo & Lou Gallery (Paris, France), will bring a fresh and diverse perspective to Art Madrid as an international meeting point.

A new and complete Parallel Programme

The Parallel Programme of Art Madrid'24 will feature a wide range of activities and initiatives that will take place in the lead-up to the event and during the days of the 19th edition of the fair in its usual location at the Galería de Cristal of the Palacio de Cibeles:

Art Madrid'24 exclusively presents the first edition of Open Booth, a space dedicated to showcasing emerging artists, highlighted this time by the installation "Reunión de gente importantísima" (Meeting of very important people) by the artist Marina Tellme.

The performance series 'Intercesiones X TARA FOR WOMEN' revolves around the idea of Intercession: the action and effect of interceding for the well-being of others. It proposes the works of four artists who are beginning their professional journey in the field of performative practices.

"Lecturas. Recorridos comisariados" is a cultural mediation initiative designed to bring the public closer to the exhibition proposals of the galleries participating in Art Madrid'24. For this occasion, we have invited cultural disseminator Eugenia Tenenbaum and curator Óscar Manrique.

As a preamble to the fair days, Art Madrid has organized "La Quedada," an itinerary to visit five artists' studios that are participating in the upcoming edition of the fair.

The X ONE SHOT COLLECTORS Collecting Programme returns for another edition, sponsored by One Shot Hotels. The proposal includes an art acquisition advisory service led by Ana Suárez Gisbert.

In this edition, the Curated Interview Section will be hosted by cultural journalist Carlos del Amor.
