Madrid, January 4, 2022.- Art Madrid is returning to Madrid Art Week and will be held for its 17th edition from February 23-27 in the Glass Gallery at Cibeles Palace. A unique, open, and luminous space, this venue is located in the “Landscape of Light” right beside the Prado Museum, Thyssen-Bornemisza Museum, and Reina Sofia Museum.

An Madrid Art Week fair with a markedly multidisciplinary character, Art Madrid'22 will bring together 35 Spanish and international galleries representing artists who work with painting, sculpture, graphic work, photography, and video art from the early 20th century to the present day. The fair is an inviting, open opportunity for all audiences to discover the contemporary art world.

PROGRAMS

One Shot Hotels is once again a sponsor of Art Madrid and has prepared two initiatives to renew its unwavering commitment to contemporary art.

The first is the program curated by Natalia Alonso, who will offer a tour of various works exhibited at Art Madrid'22 to give the audience a closer look at the art market ecosystem.

The other initiative is the collecting program run by Pía Rubio, one of our country's most prestigious art consultants. This service aims to both boost the galleries' sales activity and advise new buyers on art acquisition.

Finally, the fair is co-organizing, together with video art platform Proyector, a parallel program focused on video creation, action and performance art under the curatorship of Mario Gutiérrez. In this edition, Proyector will focus on investigating and rethinking the concept of the "loop" through the pioneers of video art, from the points of view of creation as well as distribution and collecting. During the fair, audiences will also enjoy an installation by Gary Hill, considered the founder of New Media Art, and two live works by Hill himself; alongside creations by sound art pioneer Llorenç Barber.
