Madrid, 24 January 2024.- For the second consecutive year, Art Madrid'24 presents a series of interviews with ten of the artists participating in the 19th edition of Art Madrid. For this year's edition, the interviews will be conducted by renowned cultural journalist Carlos del Amor. Entitled "Arte y Palabra", these conversations will provide audiences with a deep insight into the visual worlds of ten creators. By opening the doors of their studios, they will give viewers a sneak preview of the artworks that will be on show later at Art Madrid'24.

Words and forms intertwine in these conversations about inspiration, visual poetry, artistic commitment, imagined stories and art as a vehicle for the construction of a more fertile and humane society. Carlos del Amor has been inspired by the uniqueness of each creator in his endeavor to explore the aspirations and the role of artists in everyday life, as well as in the national art market.

The new edition of the fair, which will be held from 6 to 10 March at the Galería de Cristal of the Palacio de Cibeles, maintains its commitment to bringing contemporary art closer to the public through its protagonists.

The interviews, which may be enjoyed from 30 January via the fair's official website and through its social networks, feature the following artists: Carla Effa (Kleur Gallery); Richard García (Galería BAT); Manu Iranzo (CLC Arte); Evans Mbugua (OOA Gallery); Alejandro Monge (3 Puntos Galeria); Francesca Poza (Galería Alba Cabrera); Juan Miguel Quiñones (Pigment Gallery); Daniel Schweitzer (Shiras Galeria); Suncityboy (Dr. Robot Gallery) and Nacho Zubeizu (Galería Metro).

Arte y Palabra: Conversations with Carlos del Amor is supported by Safe Creative, a key partner in the development of this series of interviews. Safe Creative, the largest electronic registry of intellectual property online, is collaborating at the Madrid Art Week for the second consecutive year as part of Art Madrid'24.

About Carlos del Amor

Carlos del Amor takes the lead in each of these interviews, bringing his extensive experience in the world of art and culture to the table. His warm and affable approach combines with his unique ability to capture the essence of each individual artist, allowing us to understand the power of art through the spoken word. Carlos del Amor has been a media professional for more than twenty years, and is currently deputy head of Culture for RTVE news and presenter of the programme "La matemática del espejo". His links with the world of culture have been a constant throughout his professional career and he has won several awards, including the Vitoria-Gasteiz Television Festival Award for his career and the recent Ondas National Television Award in the category of Best Presenter.
